

On March 11, 2011, the largest earthquake (M9.0) occurred and tremendous tsunami hit Tohoku area, the eastern part of Japan. Churches and faithful there are still under the difficult conditions. Any support will be our big help and hope.

Japan Orthodox Church began to accept relief donation from abroad. If you send your financial support, please send it to our Japan Post Bank account. At present this is only way to accept your donation. We are now trying to get Pay Pal account or finding other ways. We will announce the other way of sending us the donation soon.

The bank account information is below. You can get explanation about remittance of Japan Post Bank in the following websight.
